

Data Report of Savitrimai Phule

Full Name:

Savitribai Jyotirao Phule

Born:

3 January 1831, Naigaon, Maharashtra

Died:

10 March 1897, Pune, Maharashtra

Occupation:

Social Reformer, Educator, Poet

Known For:

First Female Teacher of India, Women's Rights Activist

Major Contributions:

Founded India's first girls' school in 1848, Worked for widow remarriage, Fought against caste discrimination

Spouse:

Jyotirao Phule (Social Reformer, Founder of Satyashodhak Samaj)

Education:

Self-educated with help from her husband

Notable Works:

Kavya Phule (Collection of Poems), Bavan Kashi Subodh Ratnakar

Philosophy & Ideology:

Strongly influenced by Buddhist and anti-caste ideals

Recognition & Legacy:

Honored as the "Mother of Indian Feminism"